

Public Health Law Research-Related Sessions – APHA 2017

Start Time	Session Number	Title	Lead Presenter
Sunday, November 5, 2017
8:50 a.m.	*2020	Advocacy for Leaders Workshop: The science of persuasion and shaping richer stories for public health	Scott Burris, JD
Monday, November 6, 2017
10:30 a.m.	*3174	Legal Epidemiology: A Case Study of the Science of Law Part of "Combating the Opioid Epidemic: Using Law to Save Lives"	Rachel Hulkower, JD, MSPH
11:30 a.m.	3174	Innovative State Laws and Policies to Reduce Opioid Overdose Part of "Combating the Opioid Epidemic: Using Law to Save Lives"	Corey Davis, JD, MSPH
12:30 p.m.	*3282	Health Law Roundtable: Current and Emerging Issues
		US State Alcohol Laws and Age Onset of Drinking among Youth	Ziming Xuan, ScD, SM, MA,
		Revising a smoke-free law in a community with established vape and hookah businesses	Taylor Ingram, MPH,
		Smoking in cars with children: An analysis of state level laws and their inconsistencies	Ryan Patrick, JD
		Development of a Comprehensive State Firearm Law Database	Michael Siegel, MD, MPH
		Role of Law as a Tool to Achieve Global Health Security Agenda (GHSA) Targets	Akshara Menon, JD, MPH
		Autonomous Vehicles: Developing a Public Health Research Agenda to Frame the Future of Transportation Policy	Travis Crayton
		To sell a soda tax, don't talk about health? Exploring the role of personal responsibility beliefs in Americans' attitudes towards health policies	Cayce Hook
		Implementing food standards in a broad range of New York City agency facilities	Michael Garcia, MPH
		Trends in State Legislation Related to Pay to Play Policies	Elizabeth Piekarz, JD
Effects of state-level EITC on maternal health behaviors and infant health outcomes	Kelli Komro, MPH, PhD
12:30 p.m.	*3221	Pharmacist Substitution of Biosimilars: Mapping State Regulations Part of "Health Care Services Provision and Pharmaceuticals"	Adrienne Ghorashi, JD
Tuesday, November 7, 2017
10:30 a.m.	*4138	Home is Where Health Starts: Using Law to Address Housing Concerns
		Five Essential Public Health Law Services Framework: Strengthening the Legal and Policy Infrastructure to Build a Culture of Health	Marice Ashe, JD, MPH
		Using the Five Essential Public Health Law Services Framework to Assess the National Effort to Improve Enforcement of Healthy Housing Standards	Scott Burris, JD
		Advancing Health Equity: HUD's Smoke-Free Public Housing Rule	Mike Freiberg, JD
		Emerging Legal Issues: Medical Use of Marijuana in Public Housing	William Tilburg, JD, MPH
12:30 p.m.	4237	Affordable housing policy to improve health outcomes	Lynne Dearborn, PhD, AIA, RA
		Pathway to a Healthier Nation: Changing Climate Change by Changing Food Service Part of "Facing the Challenges Posed by Climate Change: Opportunities for Legal Intervention"	Becca Klein Bartholomew
2:30 p.m.	*4389	Tracking Health in All Policies Legislation	Andrew Campbell, JD
2:30 p.m.	4270	Health Law Section Poster Session I
		Evaluating The Effectiveness of Expedited Partner Therapy: Does Legislation Make a Difference?	Grace Pryor, BA
		What Policies Influence Local Health Department Workers' Participation in Infectious Disease Emergency Responses?	Lainie Rutkow, JD, PhD, MPH
		Requirements to Report Patient Information to Government Entities: A Case Study of Physician Mandatory Reporting Laws	Max Gakh, JD, MPH
		Coming to a Hospital Near You: The Future of Physician Aid in Dying in the United States	Amber Comer, JD, PhD
		Legal and Policy Implications of Physicians Counseling Minority Patients Regarding Their End-of-Life Care Choices	Matthew Slingbaum, JD, MPH
		A Medical-Legal Partnership Intervention Model: Improving the Quality of Care and Health Outcomes for Pediatric Patients with Lead Poisoning	Ruth Kafensztok, DrPH
		Regulating the 'irregular': Regulatory experiences and stakeholder perceptions around regulation of complementary and alternative medicine (CAM) practitioners	Jon Wardle, ND, MPH, LLM, PhD
		Food for Thought: Flexible Farm to School Procurement Policies Can Increase Access to Fresh, Healthy School Meals	Lauren Tonti
		Academic Cartography of Sugar Sweetened Beverages: Public Health Law Meets Scientific Research	Lexi White, JD

* An asterisk by a session number indicates that a member of the staff from the Center for Public Health Law Research will be presenting, or that data or research produced in collaboration with the Center will be presented.

Public Health Law Research-Related Sessions – APHA 2017

2:30 p.m.	4271	Health Law Section Poster Session II
		Sustaining A Model Trauma Care System: Implications for Population Health	Amy Radican-Wald, DrPH
		An Analysis of Litigation Arising from Emergency Preparedness and Response Activities in the United States	Alexander McCourt, JD, MPH
		Identifying legal and policy strategies to promote mental health and well-being	Jill Krueger, JD
		Tribal Public Health and the Law	Aila Hoss, JD
		Health in All Policies Laws and Policies Across the 50 States	Dawn Pepin, JD, MPH
		Implicit Racial Bias and Police Use of Lethal Force: Justifiable Homicide or Potential Discrimination?	Erica Payton
		Countering Preemption: A Significant Threat to Public Health	Jennifer Pomeranz, JD, MPH
4:30 p.m.	*4411	Social Determinants of Health and Health Disparities: Where Does Law Come In?
		Family economic security policy as a social determinant of health	Kelli Komro, MPH, JD
		LawAtlas: Tracking laws affecting social determinants of health	Lindsay Cloud, JD
		Effects of state-level minimum wage on infant mortality and birth weight	Melvin Livingston, PhD
		Effects of state-level minimum wage on heart disease death rates	Miriam Van Dyke
		Effects of state-level TANF on child maltreatment rates	Rachael Spencer
Wednesday, November 8, 2017
8:30 a.m.	*5009	Understanding How Community Based Organizational Support Impacts Federal Climate Change Policy: A Case Study Examining the Clean Power Plan with Lessons for Advocating in the Trump Era Part of "Grassroots (Local) Policy Efforts Addressing Climate Change"	Elizabeth Glass Geltman, JD, LLM
8:45 a.m.	*5013	Housing Law in a Systems Model: Limited Data, Great Opportunity Part of "Building Healthy Communities & Places (Built Environment)"	Scott Burris, JD
10:30 a.m.	5095	Studying the Uptake of Health Information Technology through the Lens of Legal Epidemiology: The Examples of Telemedicine and Health Information Exchanges Part of "Legal Evaluation in Healthcare and Healthcare Information Technology"	Rachel Hulkower, JD, MSPH

* An asterisk by a session number indicates that a member of the staff from the Center for Public Health Law Research will be presenting, or that data or research produced in collaboration with the Center will be presented.